ANOINTING OF THE SICK SACRAMENT

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is offered after the 9:00am Mass on the First Saturday of each month.

Those who are facing surgeries or very serious health issues can see the priest after the Mass. The Anointing will take place near the Statue of Mary at the front left of the Church. The oils are reserved in the "Olea Sancta" Repository (Holy Oils) near the Baptismal Font. Family and friends are most welcome to be present together during the Anointing.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Every Friday, in the Parish Center Chapel, there is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 8:30am-12:00pm (between the two daily Masses).

Please plan on coming to pray. Also, If you could sign up for an hour a week, or once a month, that would be great. Please contact the main office or see the sign up sheet at the Church entrance. We need at least two people for each hour. This is a real blessing for the mission of the Parish, the Harvard Catholic Center and the Choir School.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

We were blessed to have two powerful speakers at St. Paul's last week. Dr. Scott Hahn brought his deep faith and learning to a wonderful lecture on Friday evening, spending well over an hour afterwards chatting with parishioners and students. Then on Sunday, Cardinal Seán was the main celebrant at the Mass of the Holy Spirit. Taking the time to join others for well over a hundred photos and opportunity to talk with each person, it was a very happy day. He also visited the Chapel of the Women Doctors of the Church and was very moved by it.

I want to remind everyone about two events here at St. Paul's next weekend. The first is our annual OKTOBERFEST, which takes place on Saturday, September 29 after the 5:00pm Mass. With hope for good weather, we will be in the courtyard with great food, live music, and beer and wine. This is a great time for folks young and old, families, and students. Please see the bulletin for details. Be sure to invite friends and neighbors!

The second activity of note is our hosting of the Cambridge Arts Open Studios. With locations throughout the area, we are happy to sponsor this annual Cambridge tradition. Please visit the exhibits (with art work for sale) in DiGiovanni Hall from noon until 6:00pm on Saturday and Sunday, September 29 and 30.

Religious Education is well underway. The lower grades and RCIA had a fine start and the High School Confirmation Program begins next weekend. Please pray for our young folks as they learn about their faith, and for their families, teachers and staff.

At this writing, I am looking ahead to the Parish Town Meeting. My plan is to catch us up on many parish news items, and to offer a chance for conversation about the hard times facing the church and those who were meant to be in the care of her leaders. I pray it will be a helpful opportunity for us to be together. Please save the date for a proposed Service for Prayer and Healing here at St. Paul's on Friday, October 12 from 7:00pm-9:00pm.

This weekend, we are having the Collection for the Clergy Health Fund. It was originally scheduled for last weekend, but given all the other activities, we decided to delay it. I know this is an awkward time, if not perplexing or angering, to have a collection for the health and retirement care of clergy. I certainly understand that. The need, though, is quite real, and any support you can give would be greatly appreciated.

September is always a whirlwind, and this year it has lived up to its name! We ask God's blessing on all our endeavors and our striving to live holy lives.

In Christ, Fr. Kelly

OKTOBERFEST!

Plan on joining us following the 5:00pm Mass on Saturday, September 29, for our annual Oktoberfest celebration. This is an occasion for all ages and all parishioners and their guests. Food, drink, live music and a magical courtyard setting are the order of the night. Suggested donation of $5 per person. Cash bar

LECTOR AND EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF HOLY COMMUNION TRAINING

All who are interested in these important ministries are invited to attend a training session on Saturday, September 22 at 9:45am in the main church, following the 9:00am Mass. For those who can't make the Saturday morning time, Fr. Patrick will offer another training on Sunday, September 23 at 3:30pm in the church. All new lectors and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion (both for the Mass and for bringing Communion to the homebound) are required to attend this one-hour session and installation. Those who already serve are encouraged to attend as well. Please bring your ID so that you can complete a CORI form.

SACRED ART IN HARVARD SQUARE SERIES

Join Professor Francesco (Chip) Piatti on Sunday, September 30 at 1:00pm in the Multimedia Room for Sacred Art in Harvard Square: Building the Church: Early Christian Architecture. This program is the first of four that will take place in the next few months. Next Sunday's program, Building the Church, will discuss churches before and after the legalization of Christianity in The Roman Empire, leading up to the form of our own St. Paul's.

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry continues to serve about 50 people each week. Cereal is a major staple that moves quickly in the pantry. The shelves can be full one week and pretty bare a week later. The major supermarket and drug store chains frequently have sales on cereal that can be used with a coupon. We have an adequate supply of plain Cheerios at this time. We also need salad dressing (especially the creamy varieties) and jelly/jam. Finally, please continue to pray for all who struggle with food insecurity in our community. If you would like to discuss other ways that you can help, contact Tara Lauriat (tll7997@yahoo.com).

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns for eight days and nights at the tabernacle, symbolizes the presence of Christ and marks the boundaries of holy space in the Church. If you are interested in learning how to donate a Sanctuary Lamp, contact Nancy at (617) 491-8400 ext. 303.

ST. PAUL'S GIVING KIOSK

The St. Paul Giving Kiosk is located in the vestibule! The device offers parishioners, and visitors, a means by which to make offertory donations via credit card. All donations made through the kiosk are credited to parishioner accounts.

MONDAY PRAYER GROUP

Join fellow parishioners for scripture study and prayer, following the 12:10pm Mass, on Monday's in Mary's Room (Room 202).

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

We are very happy to have Marianne Deramo as the new leader of our Confirmation Programs. She will oversee both tracks: the two year/once a month High School program (which begins at the end of September) and the College/Adult program that begins in early February for eight weeks and will take place after the 5:00pm Sunday evening Mass). For info, please contact Marianne (mdconfirmation29@gmail.com).

CAMBRIDGE ART OPEN STUDIOS AT ST. PAUL'S

St. Paul's will participate in the Cambridge Art Open Studios to take place in DiGiovanni Hall on Sat. Sept 29 and Sunday Sept. 30 from 12 noon to 6:00pm. The original motivation for the exhibit was to honor the long distinguished artistic career of Kathleen Clark.
