THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends in Christ,

It's amazing to think that with just four weeks until Advent, we're now in the final stretch of Ordinary Time! With that comes November, the month dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

Catholics have always maintained a strong devotion to the Holy Souls, who depend on our prayers for their final "purgation" from sin before entering into heavenly bliss. This time of year is a good reminder that just as we have a duty to pray for the conversion of sinners and the Church throughout the world, we also carry a solemn duty to pray for the dead. While it might feel difficult at times to pray for someone whom you are convinced is already in heaven, no prayer is ever wasted! Remember, a soul in Purgatory has been saved and is on his or her way to Heaven. Purgatory is that necessary process of purification which ensures that one's love of God has been totally perfected before contemplating God face to face.

It is also helpful to recall the bonds of charity that exist between all members of the Body of Christ. This is what is meant by the Communion of Saints, which is traditionally identified in three parts: the "Church Triumphant" in heaven, the "Church Suffering" in purgatory, and the "Church Militant" on earth. As we assist the suffering souls with our prayers, we in turn benefit from the prayers of the saints in Heaven. As the Catechism explains, "In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others. Thus recourse to the communion of saints lets the contrite sinner be more promptly and efficaciously purified of the punishments for sin." (1475)

One can gain a plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls by visiting a cemetery each day between November 1 and November 8. A partial indulgence can be obtained anytime by praying the Eternal Rest (Requiem aeternam) prayer. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

In other news, last Sunday I was honored to administer First Holy Communion to two teenage siblings whom I have been working with for the past several months: Colin and Caitlin McCabe. They were both baptized and confirmed as infants in the Ukrainian Catholic Church, now making them fully-initiated Catholics. Congratulations to Colin, Caitlin, and their family!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Patrick

Please pray for Patricia Herlihy whose funeral Mass was celebrated last week. Please keep Patricia and her family and friends in your prayers.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS COUPLES WHO ARE PREPARING FOR THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE, ESPECIALLY:

I. Kristin Ann Lede & Thomas Peter Robinson

Caring for the Soul supports those whose lives have been affected by mental illness, and is working to make our religious communities places of compassion, healing and acceptance. All are welcome. Group leader is Dr. Nancy Kehoe, RSCI.

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry is well-stocked, thanks to the incredible generosity of a few friends and parishioners. Items that are particularly helpful are raisins, other dried fruit, nuts, trail mix, herbal and flavored tea, and salad dressing. We are also getting requests for baby food as we are serving young families. Finally, we would like to have a day in the upcoming weeks when everyone receives laundry detergent. Although many of us consider laundry a chore, it is hard to imagine not having clean clothes because we don't have money for detergent. If you are able to contribute one or more bottles (or packages of pods), we would be most grateful. Also, we are in need of paper and plastic bags.

ADVENT HOMELSS LUNCHES

The Advent Homeless Community Meals will begin Wednesday Nov. 28, and continue on Wednesdays Dec. 5, Dec. 12, and Dec. 19. Volunteers are needed to bring home cooked dishes, juice, fruit, desserts, and sandwiches. Help is also needed to set up, serve, be in the kitchen, visit with our guests, and clean up. Food offerings may be put in the kitchen in DiGiovanni Hall before noon or left with Nancy Nicolaou. For info or to volunteer call Carol at (617)666-2855 or Mercedes at (617)492-7047.

*To survivors in the Archdiocese of Boston who struggle to process their pain and whose wounds are opened especially wide by the recent round of reports of abuse within the church, please know that the Archdiocese's Office of Pastoral Support and Child Protection stands ready to provide assistance. We encourage you to contact them at (617) 746-5985. To the survivors and their loved ones, we must again apologize and ask forgiveness.
