EIGHT SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

We are very happy to welcome Fr. Abishai Vase here this week as he celebrates a Mass of Thanksgiving following his recent ordination to the priesthood. Fr. Abishai was a parishioner while an undergraduate at Harvard. You will have the opportunity to greet Fr. Abishai and receive his blessing in the church following the 11:00am Mass.

Ad multos annos!

This week, we enter into the holy season of Lent. We are all grateful to Fr. Patrick for his beautiful reflection in last week's bulletin preparing us for this sacred time. This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, with Masses at 8:00am, 12:10pm and 7:00pm. Ashes will be distributed during each Mass. I also ask you to take, read and save this week's bulletin inserts. One offers a fine commentary on the season of Lent, written by parishioner Dr. Stephen Fahrig. The second is a list of the many activities being sponsored here at St. Paul's to help with Lenten observance and spiritual growth. Before Wednesday, ask the Lord what He is calling YOU to do to grow in intimacy with Him over these weeks. (And with that said, being a church of fasting and feasting, be sure to celebrate Mardi Gras - Fat Tuesday – in an appropriately grand way!)

You can see that the plaster repairs and church painting project are moving forward. We are very pleased with the progress, each day bringing us closer to a Holy Week completion. We have begun more serious conversations about a Capital Campaign, and we will fill you in as the path forward becomes clearer. FYI: because of the scaffolding, the location of where we are celebrating our very busy Sacrament of Confession is a bit of a moving target. Please see signage in the Church vestibule "on the day of" for up-to-date information. We hope to see you during Lent, and beyond!

I spent several days this week in Washington, DC, visiting with former parishioners and folks who had been connected with our Harvard Catholic Center. It was so heartening to hear the affection and gratitude that so many have for the work we do in Cambridge.

Again, please see the bulletin and websites for more information. These may contain possibilities for you to be involved with life here and to grow in your own relationship with Christ and the Church in ways with which you may not yet be familiar!

A blessed Lent!
Fr. Kelly

Many food pantries send clients home with a bag of items that they can't or won't eat, some of which may even be donated to another food pantry. In contrast, our model together with your generous response to our requests, allows us to provide items that people truly appreciate. Some of the most needed items currently are coffee (including decaf, instant, and whole bean), cereal, and healthy snacks. We are often unable to meet the demand for nuts, trail mix, dried fruit, canned fruit, crackers, and granola bars.
