Those who are facing surgeries or very serious health issues can see the priest after the Mass. The Anointing will take place near the Statue of Mary at the front left of the Church. The oils are reserved in the "Olea Sancta" Repository (Holy Oils) near the Baptismal Font. Family and friends are most welcome to be present together during the Anointing.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Every Friday, in the Parish Center Chapel, there is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 8:30am-12:00pm (between the two daily Masses). Please plan on coming to pray. Also, If you could sign up for an hour a week, or once a month, that would be great. Please contact the main office or see the sign up sheet at the Church entrance. We need at least two people for each hour. This is a real blessing for the mission of the Parish, the Harvard Catholic Center and the Choir School.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Dear Friends,

And so we begin this most holy of weeks. Palm Sunday has incredible significance in and of itself and also prepares the days ahead as we enter into the deep and mysterious love of God for us, revealed in the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. I ask that you make this week different. Make room in your schedule for all the services offered here at St. Paul's, or in churches away from here if necessary. There is no movement more dramatic or compelling than walking with the Lord in these hours through Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, the Great Vigil of Easter and Easter Sunday. Please be sure to see all the various times of Masses (some changed) and services so that you can make your plans, and to be better able to encourage others to join you.

We also continue to pray for our 18 friends who will be received into the church at the Easter Vigil. We are grateful to them for their faith and example, and to all those who shepherded them throughout the RCIA experience.

And just in time, as promised, the work in the church is completed (a few tweaks here and there to go, but 98% finished!) I am very grateful to Graham Painting Company and their associates who did such a marvelous job here. I am grateful to the wonderful plasterers from Inspired Ornamental who have been working diligently since last August. I am also very grateful to parishioner and Finance Committee member Dave Dankens, who has served as overseer for so much of the contractor planning. Also, a big thank you to Tom Hogan, our Parish Director of Finance and Operations, who spent countless hours with all the many, many meetings, details and attention required for a project such as this. And finally, but not lastly, to parishioner Professor Chip Piatti. He provided his love of church architecture, along with the skill of many years of experience and learning to help inform every step we made throughout this process. As lyricist and composer Stephen Sondheim writes: "Every minor detail is a major decision." True! Or as the psalmist writes: "How lovely is Your dwelling place, Lord God of Hosts." Truer still.

Lat week, God said in the first reading: "See, I am doing something new." He does that often in our lives! It is with sadness but also gratitude and hope that I announce that our Parish Music Director and Choir School Chorister Director, John Robinson, will be leaving St. Paul's in late June for a post in England. With much more to be said later, we thank John and wish him the very best. We are setting up a committee in these days for an international search to fill the position. Please pray for all involved in this new moment.

As to further enhancing our Easter celebration, envelopes for Easter flowers are available in the vestibule, and we are happy to memorialize or honor any person for/by whom the Brass Ensemble is donated.

A Blessed Holy Week. Fr. Kelly

A MESSAGE FROM MUSIC DIRECTOR

JOHN ROBINSON

I would like to announce that I have accepted the call to become the next Director of Music at Blackburn Cathedral in England, beginning September 2019. After nine wonderful years at St. Paul's, the time has come for me to move on to the next chapter, and I am looking forward to returning to my native England, and being nearer to family and friends there. Blackburn Cathedral has a rich history of excellent choirs, and a unique and splendid organ. I am very grateful to Fr. Kelly and all the staff as we begin this transition. The position of Director of Music at St. Paul's will be greatly sought after, and an international search will begin after Easter. With thanks for all your support over the years, John.
