Every Friday, in the Parish Center Chapel, there is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 8:30am-12:00pm (between the two daily Masses). Please plan on coming to pray. SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER—DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Dear Friends,

Once again, a very blessed Easter to you all! And in the Church's great wisdom, we celebrate this second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. God's own peace and love is revealed as mercy as we continue to see the power of the Resurrection manifest in our own lives and those throughout the world.

I want to thank again all those who helped to make the Holy Week and Easter services so beautiful. The work of dozens and dozens of people, under the care of several committed leaders, makes our liturgies beautiful and prayerful. Thank you, thank you!

We want to congratulate those who were received into full communion in the church at the Easter Vigil. It has been inspiring to walk with these fine women and men and we promise our continued support and prayers for them. I might also refer you to an article in the Monday, April 22 Harvard Crimson by Grace Chao, who reflects very powerfully on her journey to that moment at the Easter Vigil.

Please also pray for the college students and young adults who are being confirmed by Cardinal Seán on Saturday, April 27. They, too, are great examples to us, and we thank Marianne Deramo for her leadership and example of faith in preparing them for this sacrament.

This weekend, we will also be saying good bye to our two transitional deacons, Mark Olejnik and Andy Nguyen. Both these good men have served us well and we promise our prayers as they approach priestly ordination, Deacon Mark in just a few weeks, and Deacon Andy in the fall. God bless you both!

Please also pray for the hundreds of our brothers and sisters killed in Sri Lanka last weekend on Easter Sunday. Most of them were attending Sunday Mass at the time of their deaths. We are one Body, and so we suffer with their families and faith communities, but we also trust that God's new life will break through our human darkness.

At this writing, I am preparing to head to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico with our Choir School students and staff. I hope to be back late Saturday evening, but know that your prayers and intentions are with me at this very sacred place.

He is Risen. He is truly Risen!

God bless,
Fr. Kelly

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Peace be with you! Of all of the things the resurrected Christ could have said, he chose this: Peace be with you! These calming words lessened the disciples' anxiety and gave them a wonderful sense of reassurance. Words have the power to do that. Jesus touches his friends with his breath and breathes his Spirit upon them. This intimate gesture of peace begins to alleviate the uncertainty and fear that no doubt consumed their thoughts and hearts. Words and gestures are so important in doing God's work. Even the simplest of greetings and actions can profoundly move people and direct them to God. On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, we are reminded that God's all-forgiving and merciful love comes to us through the risen Christ. By our words and actions, may we show that forgiveness and merciful love to others.

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry currently has a need for condiments such as honey, mayonnaise, ketchup, mustard, barbecue sauce, grated cheese, and items that appeal to the various ethnic groups that we serve. We have enough salad dressing for a while. Other priorities include coffee (including decaf and instant), canned fruit in juice, and nuts. We can always use cereal (other than plain Cheerios which are popular but the supply exceeds the demand).

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

Divine Mercy Sunday – April 28, 2019

On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. (Diary of St. Faustina, #699)

This day is truly an extraordinary opportunity! Jesus offers us the singular gift of a complete renewal of baptismal grace: a total cleansing of the soul of past sins and a renewal within us all the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit. There is no other devotion in the Church with such a promise! In order to receive this grace, the basic requirements are thus:

1. Be in a state of grace (recent confession of all mortal sin)
2. Receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday with complete trust in God's mercy
3. Venerate the Divine Mercy Image

In honor of this great feast, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be recited at 4:30pm in the church, and confession will be available 4:30pm - 6:00pm, during the 5:00pm Mass. Jesus is waiting for you to receive abundantly from the torrents of His infinite mercy!
