FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

Ongoing work continues in our beautiful church. THEREFORE, ALL MASSES WILL BE IN DIGIOVANNI HALL FROM JUNE 29 TO JULY 12. The wooden aisles down the center, sides and front of the church interior are being stripped, sanded, and varnished. It's been over 25 years since the floors have received any attention! (The floors beneath the pews will not be treated, as that is a job beyond our present resources.) It is a full two-week project. After that time, we will continue the parish's long-standing practice of most summer Masses taking place in DiG Hall. More on that to come. (At some of the Masses in DiGiovanni Hall, seating will be a little tight, so plan to come early!) During these weeks of the church's closure, Saturday Confessions will take place in the Chapel of the Women Doctors of the Church in the Parish Center from 3:00pm-4:30pm.

I am also delighted to announce that I have appointed Mr. James Kennerley as the new Music Director for St. Paul's Parish and St. Paul's Choir School. After an extensive process which began with 26 resumes from around the world, our able and committed 11 person Search Committee (comprised of respected musicians, educators, parishioners, parish and school staff, and Choir School parents) entered a process that brought us to five fine finalists. Each candidate met for an hour with me, an hour with Dr. Haferd (Head of School), two hours with committee members, an organ audition and rehearsal with both the boys and the men. James comes to us with outstanding credentials in organ, choral conducting and as a vocalist. He brings great administrative ability and many exciting ideas for the parish music program and choir school. He will be finishing up his present obligations in New York City throughout the summer and will be fully in place, with his wife and new-born son, at the end of August. Until that time, he will make several visits to us here at St. Paul's, and he is already involved in our planning and discussions for next year's schedule. We will have a reception to welcome him more formally on Sunday, September 22. Welcome James! To assist James in his move to Boston, I am reaching out to see if anyone might have any knowledge about possible rental housing in the area around Cambridge, Watertown, Brighton, etc....For now, a two bedroom unit is desired. If you have any leads, a call to the main office here would be most appreciated.

Once again, I want to welcome visitors and all who are joining us at St. Paul's for summer programs or are beginning longer term stays in the area. We are very glad to have you with us! You would be most welcome to help as lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers or other ministries. Please see one of the priests or staff for this or any other questions you might have.

God bless, Fr. Kelly

SEEKING EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS FOR THE HOMEBOUND, ELDERLY FACILITIES, AND THE HOSPITAL

Our parish has a growing ministry offering communion to people who are in the hospital, nursing homes, and elderly housing facilities in our area, and also to people who are homebound due to age, illness or disability. Please consider volunteering! This is a wonderful way to share our Eucharistic banquet with those who are nearby but unable to be with us. You can fit this to your own schedule, on weekdays or weekends. No prior experience is required. We will help with logistics and provide training as needed. If you are interested in exploring this, please contact Carolyn O'Hara at StPaulsCaring@gmail.com or (617) 491-8400, ext. 342.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CANNOT MAKE IT TO MASS?

There are people among us – parishioners, family members, neighbors, and friends - who would like to join us at the Eucharistic table but are prevented from doing so by age, disability or illness. If you know of anyone who is homebound or otherwise unable to come to Mass, and who would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know by contacting Carolyn O'Hara at (617) 491-8400, ext. 342. or StPaulsCaring@gmail.com, or simply calling the parish office, and requesting a Eucharistic minister to bring communion to them.

FAITH READING AND DISCUSSION GROUP

Please join us on Sunday, July 14, from 1:00pm-2:00pm in the Bishop Boles Conference Room for the first meeting of this group, which will continue on the second and fourth Sundays of each month to reflect on readings that shed light on our Catholic Faith. At the first meeting we will discuss Pope Francis' The Joy of the Gospel, Introduction and Ch. 1 (Sections 1-49), available at http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_exhortations/documents/papa-francesco_esortazione-ap_20131124_evangelii-gaudium.html (or just search online for "The Joy of the Gospel"). Deacon Tim will lead the discussion.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS COUPLES WHO ARE PREPARING FOR THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE, ESPECIALLY:

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry does not slow down for the summer so your continued support is always appreciated. Thank you to all who helped to replenish our supply of salad dressing, ketchup, and barbecue sauce. The most needed items currently are coffee, tea, mayonnaise, nuts, trail mix, dried or canned fruit, canisters of oats, cereal (other than plain Cheerios), crackers, pancake mix, milk (including almond or other non-dairy varieties), juice, and quinoa or similar grains. We assist several people who need low sodium or low sugar items so we try to offer options that meet their dietary needs. Ethnic foods are also welcome as our guests come from many different cultures.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

LECTORS NEEDED

The liturgies at St. Paul's are greatly enriched by our lectors who read the first and second readings. If you feel called to open God's Word for our congregation, please consider volunteering for this ministry. We can use lectors at the various weekend Masses as well as at the 12:10pm daily Mass and, during the summer, also at the 8:00am daily Mass (9:00am Saturday). Training will be provided. Volunteer to be one of our regular year-round lectors, or for the summer only. Contact Deacon Tim at (617) 897-1148 or timodonnell.post.harvard.edu.

SING TO THE LORD A NEW SONG
(BY JOINING THE PARISH CHOIR...)

Can you sing? Can you read music? If the answer to either/both of these is 'yes', why not think about joining the Parish Choir! We are a fun and friendly group who rehearse once a week on Thursday evenings and provide beautiful, musical accompaniment to 9:30am Mass on Sundays. If you are interested in joining or have any questions, please contact Maks Adach (madach@saintpaulschoirschool.us).

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed. People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants. We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?
