TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

This past week, new Music Director James Kennerley and his family arrived in Boston. We offer them our welcome and prayers as they settle in. James will be getting started with his role in the parish and Choir School in short order. I'm grateful to all on the staff who are helping to make the transition a good one for all.

This weekend we are also joined by the Missionary Sisters of the Society of Mary, who will be speaking at all the Masses. This is part of our regular support of various religious communities who do so much to help those in need and to bring the Gospel to God's people. Please be generous in our second collection for them and feel free to speak to them after the Masses.

As I mentioned last week, things keep humming here on the property. Any number of projects are nearing completion as we approach the opening of the school year and planning sessions for the parish, Harvard Catholic Center and Choir School are in high gear. I'm grateful for your prayers during these important discussions.

Many thanks to Fr. George, Deacon Tim, Judy Beatrice, and our visiting priests who helped to keep things running smoothly while Fr. Patrick and I are away at two of our parishioners' wedding in Germany.

God bless,
Fr. Kelly

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CANNOT MAKE IT TO MASS?

There are people among us – parishioners, family members, neighbors, and friends - who would like to join us at the Eucharistic table but are prevented from doing so by age, disability or illness. If you know of anyone who is homebound or otherwise unable to come to Mass, and who would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know by contacting Carolyn O'Hara at (617) 491-8400, ext. 342, or StPaulsCaring@gmail.com, or simply calling the parish office, and requesting a Eucharistic minister to bring communion to them.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS COUPLES WHO ARE PREPARING FOR THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE, ESPECIALLY:

Ben Forster and Justine Hughes

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Attention St. Paul's Families: We look forward to another great year of K-8 Faith Formation soon! Sunday morning classes begins on September 15, with registration on Sunday, September 8, following the 9:30am Mass. E-mail Catherine Barilleaux, catherinebarilleaux+DRE@gmail.com, for more information and a copy of the 2019-2020 calendar. We are also in real need of volunteers for our program. Please prayerfully consider becoming a classroom assistant, substitute, or community potluck coordinator. Thank you!

LECTORS NEEDED

The liturgies at St. Paul's are greatly enriched by our lectors who read the first and second readings. If you feel called to open God's Word for our congregation, consider volunteering for this ministry. We can use lectors at the weekend Masses as well as at the 12:10pm daily Mass and, during the summer, also at the 8:00am daily Mass (9:00am Saturday). Training is provided. Volunteer to be one of our regular year-round lectors. Contact Deacon Tim at timodonnell@post.harvard.edu or (617) 897-1148.

SING TO THE LORD A NEW SONG (BY JOINING THE PARISH CHOIR...)

Can you sing? Can you read music? If the answer to either/both of these is 'yes', why not think about joining the Parish Choir! We are a fun and friendly group who rehearse once a week on Thursday evenings and provide beautiful, musical accompaniment to 9:30am Mass on Sundays. If you are interested in joining or have any questions, please contact Maks Adach (madach@saintpaulschoirschool.us).

FOOD PANTRY

Through a new partnership with Rescuing Leftover Cuisine, the food pantry has begun receiving bread and other donations from Eataly. We are looking for a few additional volunteers who are able to assist with pickups on Saturday mornings. Please contact Tara Lauriat at TLL7997@yahoo.com if you might be able to help. In addition, there are some bare spots on the food pantry shelves. With kids bringing lunch to camp over the summer, we have run out of granola bars, cereal bars, and similar snacks. No matter how hot it is, the demand for coffee and tea continues. We also need cold cereal, instant oatmeal, crackers, nuts, trail mix, dried fruit, plain rice, mayonnaise, and juice.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

UPCOMING EVENTS

BOSTON SUMMER BIBLE STUDIES

We will have a Bible study available to anyone in Boston this summer! This is a great way to grow in community and faith. Please reach out to Maria Gonzales Di Tillio if you are interested (gonzalezditillio@college.harvard.edu).

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are asked to be vigilant until our Master returns. Even though our faith tells us that Christ will come again and that our purpose and destiny is an eternal one, it is hard not to lose heart, grow weary, and become distracted. Remembering the stories of our faith and what God has done throughout history is one way of remaining fresh and focused. Celebrating, recalling, and making real and tangible again what God has done is what our community does liturgically each time we gather. As the author of Hebrews reminds us: Faith makes real what we hope for and is the evidence of things we cannot see. Let us take this time once again to remember and participate in what God has done and continues to do.
