TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

Please God it has been a good summer for you. And now both the calendar and the rhythm of our lives indicate that it is time to move forward, always forward! I want to welcome back parishioners who have been in and out through the summer, and to welcome new parishioners who may be joining our community. We are very happy to have you with us. With that, we are delighted to have with us new and returning undergraduates, grad students, post docs and young professionals. You all bring a very special gift to our parish life. We hope you will be active participants in the many offerings here, and please know that the priests, deacon and whole staff are here to serve you.

Our music program has a new beginning. Along with new and returning boys in our choir school, we look forward to new Music Director James Kennerley's tenure, along with the continued fine work of Assistant Music Director Maks Adach. Music plays such a critical role for us here at St. Paul's, and we are excited for the times ahead. With that, I call your attention to the invitation from Maks to parishioners would like to join our well-respected Parish Choir. I know he would be happy to speak with you!

Our Faith Formation programs are a critical part of life at St. Paul's. This is a reminder that anyone with children entering grades one-eight should reach out to Catherine Barilleaux. Anyone with High School age children who would like to be involved in our Confirmation program should contact Marianne Deramo. And finally, our RCIA Program (Rite of Christian Initiation) prepares women and men who would like to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church. If you would like to make an inquiry about RCIA, please contact Director Aslan Musante or speak with one of the priests.

I want to thank those who have participated so generously in the Inspiring Hope Capital Campaign. We will be bringing it to a conclusion at the end of September. You'll be seeing and hearing some updates throughout the next several weeks for how you can participate if you have not yet been able to do so.

This is a good time for folks to offer their services as lectors and Eucharistic Ministers here at the parish, and also for youth and adult altar servers. Feel free to speak with Deacon Tim or any of the priests for more information.

We ask God's blessing on this new beginning and pray that our worship and music, community life, intellectual pursuits, and service to those most in need might give God glory and bring each of us into the fullness of Love.

God bless,
Fr. Kelly

CHURCH PARKING AREA:

AUTHORIZED PARKING ONLY

This is a reminder that authorized parking only is allowed in the church lot in order for spaces to be available for clergy and staff members. For those who attend the weekday 8:00am Mass, there is no shortage of metered street parking. The 12:10pm Mass might prove to be a bit more challenging, but there are street spaces to be had. On Saturdays and Sundays there are still spaces in Harvard's Cowperthwaite garage. To obtain a 2019/2020 permit to park in Cowperthwaite, contact Nancy in the parish office, (617) 491-8400. As always we are most grateful for your cooperation!

KNOW SOMEONE INTERESTED IN CATHOLICISM?

Please invite them to join our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) program, which begins September 21! One does not need to be totally committed in order to begin - just a genuine interest in discerning God's will and in delving more deeply into the Catholic faith. Last year we were blessed with 18 new converts, and we already have a dozen signed up for this year. Inquiries should be directed to RCIA Coordinator, Ashlan Musante (rciastpaulcambridge@gmail.com).
