TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

It was good for all of us to welcome formally Music Director James Kennerley and his family to St. Paul's at last week's parish reception. Even while he adeptly learns the ins and outs of the massive music program here, he has already brought to bear his many gifts, with ongoing conversation regarding his vision for the future generating much excitement. Ad multos annos!

With that, we have resumed our Thursday evening Vespers at 5:30pm. The Boys Choir leads this beautiful 25 minute service in the church. We want to expand and encourage participation at this time of prayer. Please come for yourself and bring others with you! What a perfect moment in the day to pause, to reflect, and to pray.

The Inspiring Hope Campaign is in its final week. This weekend, we will take the time at Mass once again to fill out Pledge Forms. If you've already done it, thank you! If you have not, or would like to make an additional pledge/contribution, I am grateful. Just over 2.1 million dollars has been pledged through the generosity of 150 people. Please help us to meet our 2.5 million dollar goal with your pledge this weekend. We would love to have complete and full participation of every person who attends St. Paul's, no matter the size of the gift. Thanks!

Our Parish Council serves an important role for us here at St. Paul's. It is a much-valued advisory group to me, representing well the many constituents of our parish. This year, three long-serving members will be finishing up their time on the council. I would like to thank Paul Haley, Phil Kao, and Christopher Cassani, who has also ably filled the role of Chairperson of the Council. If you would be interested in serving on the Council, I would be happy to speak with you. Final decisions will be made by mid-November.

Our RCIA program was off to a great start last week and this week our High School Confirmation Program begins. It is not too late to sign up for either program. (This would be a reminder, too, that applications for our Choir School are still open, as well as for our Religious Education Program!) If you are interested, please contact the responsible staff person, listed in our bulletin.

Next Saturday morning, October 5, at 9:45am, we will have our annual Blessing of the Animals, in honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. We'll be in the courtyard and happy to bless any of God's creatures you bring along!

If you are reading this online on Friday evening or at the Saturday Vigil Mass, I want to remind you about our annual OKTOBERFEST celebration on Saturday, September 28. It takes place in the courtyard after the 5:00pm evening Mass. See the bulletin for more details of this always fun event.

God bless, Fr. Kelly

THE PSALMS: SCRIPTURE, POETRY, PRAYER

Learn how to read and pray the psalms with attention to their poetic style and structure, their original context in the Jewish Temple, and their power as Christian prayer. Six classes, lead by Deacon Tim, will meet Wednesdays 9/25, 10/2, 10/9, 10/23, 11/20, and 12/4 6:30-7:30pm, first meeting in the Boles Room. No previous study of the psalms is assumed. Materials provided. No registration required. Participants are urged to come to as many classes as possible. If possible, come first and pray the psalms at Vespers, 6:00pm in the Chapel of the Women Doctors. timodonnell@post.harvard.edu

DANTE'S DIVINE COMEDY: POETRY AND FAITH

Join this exploration of the world's greatest poem of the Christian vision of life, using Anthony Esolen's acclaimed translation along with Professor Esolen's 30-minute video lectures and group discussion. Classes are Sundays 1:30-3:00pm beginning September 29 in the Boles Room. Fall classes will cover the first of the Comedy's three parts, Inferno. Purgatorio is scheduled for the Winter and Paradiso for the Spring. For details or to register, contact Jill Fallon, jillfallon \(at\) verizon.netverizon.net).

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK CLASSES: A JOINT OFFERING OF ST. PAUL'S AND ST PETER'S

THE BEGINNER'S CLASS: On Monday evenings 7:00-8:00pm beginning September 30, this introductory course is offered for its fourth consecutive year. Lift the veil of translations and experience directly the inspired words of the New Testament! We will start with the alphabet and work up to short passages from the Gospels, stressing the sound of the language through reading aloud. The Fall term class will run until December 16. NEW TESTAMENT GREEK READING COURSE: Galatians, 1 Corinthians, and Selected Gospel Parallels. Tuesday evenings 7:00-8:00pm, the first and third Tuesdays of the month beginning on October 1. Experience these vivid and compelling texts in their original language! We will provide for some Greek language review while focusing on reading and translation of the text. Participants should have completed a year of either New Testament or Classical Greek. The Fall term class runs until December 17. Both courses will take place at St. Peter's Parish Center, 100 Concord Avenue, Cambridge. Teachers are Classical languages instructor Michael O'Brien of St. Peter's and Deacon Tim O'Donnell of St. Paul's. There is no charge, and texts/learning materials will be distributed or are available online. There is plentiful parking (enter by Manassas Ave.) and the location is served by buses 72, 74, 75, and 78. For more info or to sign up for either class, contact Mike O'Brien at mcsamicus@gmail.com or call at (617)721-9559.

CHECK OUT WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ST. PAUL'S

OKTOBERFEST! SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Plan on joining us following the 5:00pm Mass, for our annual Oktoberfest celebration. This is an occasion for all ages and all parishioners and their guests. Food, drink, live music and a magical courtyard setting are the order of the night. Suggested donation of $5 per person. Cash bar

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

In celebration of the Feast of St. Francis, join us on Saturday, October 5 after the 9:00am Mass in the Parish Courtyard for the Blessing of the Animals. Bring your feathered, scaly and furry friends for this special blessing.

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry has been blessed with special treats from some local businesses. LA Burdick Handmade Chocolates recently donated 3 large bags of their slightly less than perfect but equally amazing signature chocolate mice, penguins, and other chocolates. Cardullo's Gourmet Shoppe also donated a large selection of gourmet treats, including more chocolate. Finally, we are now rescuing artisan breads and other products from Eatly to round out our gourmet selections. Our priority is still healthy fresh produce through our longstanding arrangement with Fair Foods, but the extras demonstrate our commitment to upholding the dignity of those whom we serve. Donations of the following items would be particularly helpful at this time: canned fruit (in juice), raisins, honey, canned chicken, juice, and coffee. We would also appreciate donations of unopened personal care items (toothpaste, shampoo, etc.) and laundry detergent.

SAVE THE DATE

Dr. Abusrour, founder of the Al-Rowwad Children's Theater and Cultural Center in the Aida Refugee Camp in Bethlehem will give a talk on Sunday, November 3rd at 3:00pm in DiGiovanni Hall. More info to follow.
