TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

Once again we extend our “welcome” and “welcome back” to so many. St. Paul’s is a place of reverent worship, wonderful music, community care and intellectual integrity. We hope that you will participate by your prayer and other forms of engagement in our life here together as we praise God, from Whom all blessings flow. Be sure to look over the whole bulletin and/or website so that you have a good sense of all that is happening here and don’t miss anything!

We are very pleased to have our choirs back in place after a well-earned summer respite. We are so grateful to the 9:30am Parish Choir, under the direction of Maks Adachs, which is a pivotal dimension of our worship at St. Paul’s. (If you would be interested in speaking with Maks about joining the choir, please contact him or any other members!) We are also happy to have our renowned Choir of Boys and men back at the 11:00am. Under the leadership of new St. Paul’s Music Director James Kennerley, we are excited for the year ahead.

The Choir School is off to a great start. With new students, some new faculty, a new library and a fresh coat of paint, it has been a fine beginning. We know that there are often folks moving into the area who may not be familiar with the choir school. If you have a boy in the third-eighth grade who might benefit from our unique and specialized school, please visit the website and reach out to the school office.

Our Faith Formation/Religious Education Programs are a vital part of our parish and the wider church. If you have children in grades one-eight, please contact Catherine Barrilleaux (registration is this weekend, with classes beginning next week.) For High School students who would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, please contact Marianne Deramo. And for our RCIA Program (Rite of Christian Initiation), designed for those who might be considering entering the Catholic Church, please reach out to Ashlan Musante. Of course, you could speak at any time to our deacon or one of the priests.

Our successful Inspiring Hope Capital Campaign will be brought to a close at the end of September. You’ll be hearing more about it at Masses, with the opportunity to fill out pledge cards on September 28 and 29. Whether new to the parish or a long-time parishioner, your assistance in supporting our work financially is critical for our service here.

Next week, Sunday September 15 at 11:00, we will be having our annual Mass of the Holy Spirit for the opening of the school year for Harvard, St. Paul’s Choir School and the other academic institutions from which our parishioners come. Faculty are encouraged to dress in academic robes and join in the procession. The celebrant for the Mass is Bishop Robert Reed, a great friend of the parish, Auxiliary Bishop of Boston and the well-known President and face of Catholic TV. There will be a reception following. We hope you will be here!

God bless you, Fr. Kelly

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK CLASSES: JOINT OFFERING OF ST. PAUL’S AND ST. PETER’S

The Beginner’s Class: On Monday evenings 7:00pm-8:00pm beginning September 23, this introductory course in New Testament Greek is offered for its fourth consecutive year. Lift the veil of translations and experience directly the inspired words of the New Testament! We will start with the alphabet and work up to short passages from the Gospels, stressing the sound of the language through reading aloud. The Fall term class will run until December 16.

New Testament Greek Reading Course: Galatians, 1 Corinthians, and Selected Gospel Parallels. On Tuesday evenings 7:00pm-8:00pm, the first and third Tuesdays of the month beginning on October 1, join a course in readings from St. Paul’s letters and from the Gospels. Experience these vivid and compelling texts in their original language! We will provide for some Greek language review while focusing on reading and translation of the text. Participants should have completed a year of either New Testament or Classical Greek. The Fall term class will run until December 17.

Both courses will take place in the St. Peter’s Parish Center, 100 Concord Avenue, Cambridge. Teachers are Classical languages instructor Michael O’Brien of St. Peter’s and Deacon Tim O’Donnell of St. Paul’s. There is no charge, and texts/ learning materials will be distributed or are available online. There is plentiful parking (enter by Manasses Ave.) and the location is served by buses 72, 74, 75, and 78. For more information or to sign up for either class, contact Mike O’Brien at mcsamicus@gmail.com, or call at 617-721-9559.
