EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Dear Friends,

This bulletin comes to you while we are in the heart of the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday) and Easter Sunday, these most holy days when the full expression of Jesus' love for you was enacted in Jerusalem, and is made alive still through the Spirit and the Church.

We face our own trials and sufferings, but most important, those who die with Him also rise with Him!

On a practical note, I encourage you to check out our YouTube page regularly at "St. Paul's Harvard Square" (be sure to Subscribe and like us on Facebook) and to see our parish website for up to date information.

Know of our prayers for you and all your loved ones.

He is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Happy Easter,
Fr. Kelly

WHEN I WAS IN PRISON

Parishioner Tom Ash is establishing a "Support Circle" for a man who hopes to be released from prison later this year. Tom has known this individual since 2015. The Circle's purpose is to determine what supports it can put into place to ease this man's transition back into society. Tom earlier convened a Circle in 2015 for another individual, and the supports and friendships provided by that Circle have greatly assisted that individual in building a healthy and productive life. If you are interested in learning more or in participating in the Circle, please email Tom (thomaspatrickash@yahoo.com).

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday. As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying “so what” or “alleluia”? For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of “so what.” Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don’t sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and “find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The “so what” response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn’t important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn’t impress us or matter all that much. It’s all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant “tomorrow” that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath. When that happens, will we want to be thinking “so what?” or “alleluia”?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn’t need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!
