THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Friends,

The Easter accounts of Jesus appearing to His disciples in unexpected ways and in unexpected places can be a source of real hope for us. In these days that continue to challenge us in many ways, it is good for us to keep the eyes of our hearts and minds open and aware to His presence.

Again, I encourage you to look to our parish website, Choir School website, and Harvard Catholic Center website for up to date information. Also, see our YouTube channel at “St. Paul’s Harvard Square” for videos of the Mass and other postings.

Thanks for visiting our church and know of our Easter prayers.

God bless,
Fr. Kelly

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us; make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

MOVIE SUGGESTIONS

In no particular order (outside of how they came to my mind!), here are some movies that you might watch with this unanticipated time on your hands. Each has either an overt or subtle Catholic/Christian theme. Some might be interesting to younger people, but most are geared towards adults. Happy to hear any suggestions that I can pass along to others! Fr. Kelly Into Great Silence; The Mission; Jesus of Nazareth (1977); The Nativity Story (2006); I Can Only Imagine; Au Revoir Les Enfants; Chariots of Fire; Going My Way; The Bells of St. Mary's; A Man for All Seasons; The Scarlet and the Black; The Assisi Underground; On the Waterfront; Gods and Men; The Letters (2015); The Prince of Egypt.

WHEN I WAS IN PRISON

Parishioner Tom Ash is establishing a "Support Circle" for a man who hopes to be released from prison later this year. Tom has known this individual since 2015. The Circle's purpose is to determine what supports it can put into place to ease this man's transition back into society. Tom earlier convened a Circle in 2015 for another individual, and the supports and friendships provided by that Circle have greatly assisted that individual in building a healthy and productive life. If you are interested in learning more or in participating in the Circle, please email Tom (thomaspatrickash@yahoo.com).

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 26, 2020
Third Sunday of Easter

What does it take for our eyes to be opened? Every day, a man laboriously walks down Main Street of town. With great difficulty but graceful determination, he places one foot in front of the other, uses a crudely made staff for support, and walks. His pace is slow, but he walks. What does he hope to see? Where does he want to go? What does he find? We all walk through life. The type of “walking” life requires is not always physical but is most assuredly emotional and spiritual. We walk, we look, we encounter, and we seek. How we do these things and what we actually find is determined by what we carry and what we allow ourselves to discover along the way.

If walking is too challenging for us, we may choose to isolate and stay alone. If we are afraid to walk, we may become overly dependent on others providing for us and abandon the journey. We can walk and pay attention only to what is in front of our feet and never notice the immensity of what is happening around us. The road is never the same twice. The journey is always different. What kinds of things do you notice as you walk through life? It seems that the disciples of the Road to Emmaus missed a lot at first. We do as well.

We are called to walk with purpose, to listen, and to notice things that may not at first be apparent. We have to allow the One who has a special claim on our soul to enlighten, instruct, and inspire us. The incarnate mystery of God is pulsating in and through all of creation, where the presence of the Word who became flesh can be discovered. He has been with us all along. How could we have missed Him? Our journey brings us back to the breaking of the bread, and something begins to stir within us. We begin to understand, and things look differently. Bread, body, wine, and blood bring us to see that everyone and everything is a “Eucharistic” encounter. We become what we eat and we see what we eat. We continue to walk. Our eyes are now opened, and we recognize Him. Our hearts burn. Stay with us. Please stay with us.
