TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

Here we are on the threshold of another busy semester. It is changed, no doubt, by many factors, but nonetheless, the combined life of the parish, Harvard Catholic Center and Choir School carries on! I want to welcome all those who are new to our community. Be sure to reach out to any of the staff to see how you might get connected and involved in the best way possible. We are delighted to have you with us!

We had the happy occasion of our parish High School Confirmation this past week. Though it was delayed a few months, the Holy Spirit came upon these good young women and men in God's own time. Please pray for them! Thanks, also, to Confirmation Coordinator Marianne Deramo for her faithful service. We'll be getting information out soon to the parish about Religious Education plans for all our children and High School students very soon.

The painters are doing their best to finish the sanctuary. What a job! Pray for them! We are still aiming for completion by September 10.

The Catholic Appeal is counting on us. If you have not had the chance to contribute to this important source of funding which allows Cardinal Seán to carry out his responsibilities through the Archdiocesan offices, I would encourage you to do that. See the information here in the bulletin or online at bostoncatholicappeal.org

Some important calendar notes: we will continue the suspension of the 8:00am daily Mass through the spring, for many well-considered reasons. It is a disappointment but thank you for your understanding. Also, this Tuesday in the church, from 7:00pm – 8:00pm, will be the final Tuesday night Parish Confessions. We will announce a new time slot in mid-September when construction is completed, and we have a better sense of how schedules are developing in this "new normal." Until then, you are welcome to contact a priest for confession! Again, thanks for your flexibility in these challenging days. More to come soon!

Practical points: please remember to lower your kneeler at the end of Mass so that cleaners can take care of that area; volunteers for ushers, cleaners, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers are always welcome; please sign up for online offertory giving; food for the Food Pantry can be left in the church vestibule during any Mass time.

There are so many people in need in these days on so many levels. Could we all commit to praying a rosary this week to support one another?

God bless, Fr. Kelly

ST. PAUL'S LANGUAGE WORKSHOPS

Christian Latin: 1st and 3rd Mondays

Begins September 14, 7:00pm - 8:00pm

This course will survey inspiring and generally underappreciated examples of Christian prose and poetry spanning over a millennium - from the Roman Empire through the Medieval era - in the original Latin. We will start with excerpts from a pair of early saints' lives, read selections from St. Jerome's Vulgate Bible and proceed to later masterpieces, including some of the wonderful antiphons of St. Hildegard of Bingen. While there will be some language review, we will focus on reading and translation of the texts. Participants should have completed and have some recollection of a year or more of Latin. Classical languages instructor Michael O'Brien will lead this group. There is no charge, and texts and learning materials will be distributed or are available online.

New Testament Greek: 1st and 3rd Tuesday

Begins September 15, 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Back for the fourth year! This year we'll be reading selections from the Gospel of St. Matthew. Experience this inspiring text in its original language! We will provide for some Greek language review while focusing on reading and translation of the text, with particular attention to passages without counterparts in the other Gospels. Participants should have completed a year of either New Testament or Classical Greek. Teachers are Classical languages instructor Michael O'Brien and Deacon Tim O'Donnell. There is no charge, and texts and learning materials will be distributed or are available online.

Workshops are co-sponsored by St. Peter Parish and the Harvard Catholic Forum & will run from September 2020 to May 2021. Zoom format for now. For more information or to sign up, contact Mike O'Brien at mcsamicus@gmail.com, or (617) 721-9559.

FOOD PANTRY

Thank you to all who have continued to support the food pantry over the past few months. We generally need at least 50 paper grocery bags each week and expect donations to decline as we return to using reusable bags. We are continuing to prioritize the following items: cereal, shelf stable milk (quart size in TetraPak containers), rice, beans, pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, mayonnaise, and coffee. We would also like to recognize the food rescue organizations that enable our food pantry and others in the area to provide fresh fruits and vegetables: Food for Free, Food Link, and Rescuing Leftover Cuisine. These are in addition to our longstanding relationship with Fair Foods.

GRAD STUDENTS, POST DOCS & YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

GRADUATE STUDENTS AND YOUNG PROFESSIONALS (GS/YP) SMALL GROUPS:

ST. PAUL'S OUTSIDE THE WALLS

Registration Now Open!

With COVID 19 causing us to become isolated, spread out across the country/world, and a bit dulled, many folks in our community miss the friendly conversations that used to take place after Masses or during our large pasta dinners and discussion groups. As a remedy for this during the pandemic, small groups of 3-4 people dedicated to discussion, prayer, and fellowship are now forming no matter if you're in Cambridge or on the other side of the world. We ask that you join us this fall semester for our small discussion groups: St Paul's Outside the Walls! To sign-up and indicate your preferences for the small groups (such as location, meeting frequency, availability, and desired group activities), please fill out the following Google form: <https://forms.gle/pnB7pTJnLUbfNi7L9>. Groups will continue to be filled and formed throughout the semester, but if you wish to be included in the first round of group assignments, then fill out the form by Thursday, August 27. While the exact focus of each group will be determined by its members, the chaplaincy will help provide suggested topics for discussion each week in our weekly eblast.
